Approved by Consortium: May 24, 2010

Approved by Commission: May 13, 2010

For purposes of the extended school year for students transitioning to high school, the student will remain the responsibility of the elementary school district until June 30. On July 1, the student will become the responsibility of the high school district.

This distinction is solely for the purposes of determining the responsible district and is not to be a significant determinant, by itself, in decisions regarding the educational placements of individuals with exceptional needs. Such placements are only to be made on the basis of student needs as determined by the Individualized Education Program Team that shall include a representative from the district of residence.
